

A parade and rally celebrating the Los Angeles Rams' win at Super Bowl LVI will be held on Wednesday, February 16 in the immediate area surrounding USC's University Park Campus and Exposition Park. The expected crowd to attend these events is currently estimated to be between 20,000 and 100,000 people. The USC Department of Public Safety (DPS) will be joined by LAFD, LAPD, LADOT, CHP, LA County Sheriffs, and Exposition Park private security teams to help manage this large group of people in the area. Please read on for information regarding University Park Campus entrance closures, the impact on area traffic, public street closures, etc.

Parade Route & Schedule

The parade route will begin in the Shrine Auditorium west parking lot. It will proceed east on Jefferson Boulevard to Figueroa Street, turning south on Figueroa until it reaches 39th Street, where it will turn west. The route will continue through Exposition Park, and conclude with a rally on Bill Robertson Lane. Neither the parade, nor any of its participants or spectators, will enter the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The parade is scheduled to begin at 11:00am and all related activities are expected to finish by 1:30pm. Parade attendees will likely remain in the vicinity for an extended period after these formal celebrations conclude.

USC Buses Impacts

All changes indicated below will be in effect from 8:00am-2:30pm. Expect delays on all routes due to heavy traffic in the area. Please consider taking Metro (subway and lightrail), which will not be impacted by vehicle traffic/street closures.

- Parking Center – Only services Grand Structure and MTA stop on eastbound Jefferson & McClintock (southeast side)
- Intercampus Shuttle / Union Station – Bus Stop moved to MTA stop on Southbound McClintock just before Jefferson
- SC Tower – Bus Stop moved to northbound McClintock just passed Jefferson.
- Marina Del Rey – Bus Stop moved to MTA stop on Southbound McClintock just before Jefferson
- C-Route – No changes

Campus Pedestrian Entrance Impacts

ALL pedestrian access points to campus along Figueroa Street and Exposition Blvd. (including the south end of Trousdale Parkway) will be closed on Wednesday during the event. The Royal Street Entrance on Jefferson Blvd. will also be closed to pedestrian traffic. The pedestrian Trojan Check areas at the north end of Trousdale parkway, the Watt Way Entrance on Jefferson Blvd., the Downey Way Entrance and the McClintock Avenue Entrance will not be affected.

Campus Vehicle Entrance Impacts

The Royal Street Entrance on Jefferson, the McCarthy Way Entrance on Figueroa, and the Watt Way/Pardee Entrances on Exposition will be closed to ALL vehicle and pedestrian traffic beginning at 8:00am on Wednesday morning. The Royal Street Parking Structure will only be accessible from 34th Street on campus via the McClintock Entrance; the McCarthy Way Parking Structure and parking lots inside the Pardee

Entrance will NOT be accessible once those entrances are closed at 8:00am. Due to ongoing construction, the Downey Entrance is still one-way coming into campus; the McClintock and Jefferson Entrances/Exits are unaffected.

When the city street closures detailed below are lifted by LADOT, these entrances will reopen to normal activity.

Freeway Exits / City Street Closures

110 Southbound Off-Ramp at Exposition Blvd. and 110 Northbound HOV Off-Ramp at 39th St. will both be closed starting at 7:00am.

LADOT will be closing the following streets beginning at 8:00am on Wednesday:

- Jefferson Boulevard (in both directions) between Hoover Street and Figueroa Street
- Figueroa Street (in both directions) between Adams Boulevard and Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard.
- Exposition Boulevard (both directions) between Bill Robertson Lane and Figueroa Street
- Bill Robertson Lane (both directions) between Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard. and Exposition Boulevard.

LADOT will reopen area city streets on a rolling basis once the parade passes through each section.

Parking Structure Impacts

The Grand Avenue, Downey, and Jefferson Structures are not expected to be impacted by this event, other than area traffic congestion. Due to this event, we are honoring all structure parking passes in any available structure, only on Wednesday, February 16th.
